

Business Attire for Delta Sigma Theta Sorority, Inc.

- Understanding that dress codes in Corporate America have changed over the years and many offices have relaxed their dress codes it is important to clarify what Business Attire means for Delta Sigma Theta Sorority, Inc. For example, what may be considered appropriate at Coca Cola INC may not be considered appropriate for Delta Sigma Theta Sorority, INC.
- We too, are a business. The executive management of our business has the right to set the dress code for conducting business just as the company you may work for or own has the right to set the dress code for business.
- Delta Sigma Theta Sorority, Inc. does not have a business casual dress for Chapter meetings, Plenary Sessions and Ceremonies.
- Members of Delta Sigma Theta Sorority, Inc. do not wear after-five attire to business sessions, with the exception of the Closing Banquet.
- Members of Delta Sigma Theta Sorority, Inc. do not wear Khaki and Denim to business sessions and ceremonies.
- Members of Delta Sigma Theta Sorority, Inc. do not wear Sorority T-shirts to business sessions and ceremonies.
- Members of Delta Sigma Theta Sorority, Inc. do not wear halter tops, spaghetti straps, and sleeveless tops to business sessions unless they are covered with a blazer or suit jacket.
- Members of Delta Sigma Theta Sorority, Inc. make sure their skirt/dress length is appropriate and not revealing. This includes the splits in the skirt or dress.
- Business attire is not what YOU wear to work. It is the prescribed attire by our Executive Board that is printed in official Sorority documents. For example scrubs may be appropriate attire if you work at a hospital. That does not make it appropriate attire for a Delta meeting.
- Members of Delta Sigma Theta Sorority, Inc. observe the prescribed color code as outlined in the Protocol and Traditions Manual.
